NOTICE OF THE UNITED STATES REGARDING JUNE 29, 2012 HEARING

In its June 13, 2012 pleading, (Dkt. 104), the United States requested that any hearing on Defense Counsel’s pending motion for leave to enter a limited and special appearance, (Dkt. 96), be set for a later date because multiple members of the prosecution team were expected to be out of the district on June 29, 2012. Yesterday, the United States learned that due to the cancellation of an out-of-district conference, those members of the prosecution team are now available. Although the government still requests that the motion for leave be decided on the papers and without an oral hearing, the United States is available to proceed on June 29 to address the lack of necessity for additional limited appearances at this time.

Respectfully submitted,

Dated: June 22, 2012

Neil H. MacBride
United States Attorney
